NEW WAR SAVING STAMP DRIVE IS PLANNED

In November and December of this year, members of the customers' book and gift trades in Canada are planning to sell at least one million dollars worth of war savings stamps. Christmas cards for holding stamps will be supplied free to the retail trade and to the public. The designs are now being produced by the greeting card industry and will be donated to the government. Retail outlets of these trades will stock and sell war savings stamps in the final two months of this year.

Back of the campaign will be national publicity and promotion, both from official quarters and through these trades themselves. In preparation for the drive Mr. William S. McCartney, president of John Bradford Limited, of Toronto, has made a special trip across Canada, and has explained the details of the plan to retailers in every major city.

The amount of work and enthusiasm being put behind the drive by both the manufacturers and the retailers shows a fine spirit of co-operation, and merits the whole-hearted support of the Canadian people.

Central United church, Blairmore, Sunday schools will reopen Sunday, September 5th. Senior school will be held at 11 a.m. and junior school at 2 p.m.

Mr. C. A. Fabro, of Kimberley, was a visitor to Blairmore for a few days during the week, returning home on Tuesday night. Charlie is a real old-timer of this section of the Pass, and is very well known. While here he took occasion to meet many of the old friends and associates.

On board a great ocean liner the captain was showing a bright young woman through the stateroom. He pointed out a strapping big Irish emigrant who was putting away with knife, fork and spoon a huge mound of food that fellow is consuming," he remarked. "Oh, Captain," exclaimed the fair passenger, her face aglow with the light of discovery, "I suppose he is what you sailors call a stowaway."

WILLIAM HOWE PASSES

The death occurred on Wednesday afternoon of William Farrow, only son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Augustus Howe, at the age of nineteen years and seven months.

William had been stricken with blindness when quite a young lad, in addition to which he in late years became an invalid.

Funeral service will be held in Central United church at 3 o'clock this afternoon, Rev. E. B. Arrol officiating. The remains will be laid to rest in the Blairmore union cemetery.

FREE GAME LICENSES MAY BE ISSUED SERVICE MEN

Canadian and American military personnel stationed in Alberta may obtain free game bird licenses, and may shoot their bag of ducks, pheasants and other wild fowl on a free license, but a license for big game must be purchased at the prevailing fee of $3.

A MEAT SUBSTITUTE

A recent issue of the Time Magazine says that at the Anheuser-Busch plant at St. Louis, in a vat the size of a small room, molasses, ammonia, water, air and yeast are being mixed. Every 12 hours this mixture produces a ton of rich meat nearly as succulent as a sirloin steak which takes two years to raise on the hoof, much cheaper and much richer in proteins and vitamins. Furthermore, says Time, this new synthetic meat is no easy to make that its inventors are looking forward to performing a modern miracle of the loaves and fishes after the war among the foodless peoples of the world.

Listed in the Sicilian casualty list was Private John Dudley, son of Mrs. Mary Dudley, of Hillcrest, as wounded.

The new Salvation Army hall at Coleman will be officially opened by Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Ursaki, of Edmonton, on Friday night next, September 10th. Town officials of Coleman have been asked to be present to declare the building open to Salvation Army service. Col. and Mrs. Ursaki will spend three days in the district.

Rev. G. A. Kettys, of Stony Plain, Alberta, has taken over the pastorate of St. Paul's United church at Coleman, and with Mrs. Kettys and two members of their family arrived in Coleman on Tuesday of this week. Their eldest son, LAC Ross Kettys, received his wings with the RCAF at Edmonton yesterday.

By regulation issued by the government some months ago, the sending of newspapers overseas except from the office of publication was prohibited; and they were only permitted to be sent from there to bona fide subscribers whose subscriptions must be paid in advance. We can only send papers to the boys overseas on these conditions.

William Hedrick, of Western Nurseries, Calgary, is busy taking orders for fruit trees, flowers, etc. Each year about this time or later Bill makes his appearance in the Crows' Nest Pass, and is very well known. At present he is staying at the Cosmopolitan hotel here, where he may be contacted. Mr. Hedrick takes great interest in landscaping.

Remission of death duties on the Aberhart estate has been cancelled. The amount was in the neighborhood of $2,700 on an estate valued at $51,770. A certain section of the public and the public press voiced disapproval of remission. Premier Manning declared that it is the expressed determination of the government at all times to administer the public affairs of the people of the province in accordance with their expressed will.

MINER SUSTAINS FRACTURED LEG

While at work in the Greenhill mine of the West Canadian Collieries on Monday afternoon, Arthur Decoux, well known miner, sustained a fractured leg. He was removed to the Blairmore hospital for treatment.

SPEED MOVEMENT OF SCRAP RUBBER

Movement of scrap rubber that has been accumulated in rural sections of Alberta will be expedited by the action of the railways in reducing the freight rate on less than carload lots of L.C.L. shipments, according to information which salvage officials have given the Alberta Motor Association. Some time ago the AMA drew attention to the fact that large stocks of rubber collected in different parts of the province were not being moved. The objective is 10,000 tons of old rubber to be collected in Canada this year to replenish the source of reclaimed rubber urgently required for the maintenance of tires on motor vehicles essential to the country's war effort.

Some time ago a survey by the AMA revealed that a large portion of the requirements was already on hand in rural areas in Alberta and other parts of western Canada and that the movement of this material was being prevented by transportation difficulties.

A bible in 108 volumes, the world's largest edition, is owned by natives of Tibet in Asia. Thirty-six yaks—Asiatic bison—are required to carry it.

Closing of the Con mine at Yellowknife, N.W.T., has been announced by the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company of Canada, bringing to an end all Consolidated's northern gold operations. The shutdown of the mine was due mainly to shortage of labor and also to the fact that gold was not required for war purposes.

Sunday, September 5th, will be Harvest Thanksgiving Sunday and Day of Prayer at Central United church, Blairmore, at the evening service at 7.30 o'clock. Will friends who wish to give garden produce, flowers, etc., kindly leave same at the church no later than Saturday afternoon. A cordial invitation to attend this service is extended to all.

Another oldtimer of the Crow was a visitor to Blairmore and Frank yesterday in the person of Harry H. Fitzgibbon, of Lethbridge. Harry now is rule investigator with the C.P.R.'s Alberta division. He is very well known locally, having come to Frank some thirty-nine years ago. After many years as yardman and brakeman, he became passenger and freight train conductor. Harry's headquarters are now in Lethbridge. While here he ran across many old friends who were glad to greet him.

BLAIRMORE FLOWER SHOW AND SPORTS MONDAY NEXT

Everyone in the Crows' Nest Pass are looking forward with keen interest to Bellevue's 26th annual flower show and sports programme, to be held on Monday next.

The big day's proceedings will start off with sports at 10 a.m., under the auspices of the Bellevue Athletic Association. A full line of children's events, sprints, jumps, etc., will be featured, plus the big open bicycle race from Blairmore to Bellevue.

A special feature this year will be an exhibition of work for war relief purposes, made by the Red Cross and Red Shield societies. This is to take place during the flower show hours, 1 to 7 p.m.

Following the show, large and small parcels of prize-winning flowers and vegetables will be auctioned; and at night a grand whist-bridge and dance in the Oddfellows' Hall will bring the big day to a close. There will be whist-bridge at 8 o'clock and dancing at 10.

William Kerr is president and James Radford secretary-treasurer of the Society.

COWLEY HAPPENINGS

Nick Papp, of the RCAF, Calgary, was down recently for a visit with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Martin, and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Murphy were Sunday visitors to Corbin.

J. R. Wood, of Cranbrook, paid a visit of a few days with his married daughters and their families here.

Rev. William McDonald and Rev. Haakon Aussenhouwer, South Alberta missionaries, were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Murphy on Tuesday.

Miss Ann Papp returned Friday from two months' stay in Hamilton, Ontario.

The Ladies' Aid of the United church were entertained for their regular meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Dwyer.

A top in aid of the Red Cross will be held at the home of Mrs. M. A. Murphy on this Saturday afternoon. Please remember the date.

On Thursday night the pupils and their parents of the United Sunday school held a party in the Anglican church in honor of Rev. Mr. Barlow, who will be leaving shortly for New Westminster, B.C. They also made him a presentation.

Miss Margaret Cornil and Mr. Auguste Dumont were united in marriage at Coleman on Saturday afternoon last. Several carloads of relatives and friends from their immediate district in the Porcupine Hills were present. After a short honeymoon, the young couple will reside on their farm in the Porcupines.

The marriage took place at St. Paul's United church, Coleman, on Saturday last, of Margaret Cornil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Cornil, of Coleman, to Mr. Auguste Dumont, of Cowley, Rev. E. B. Arrol, of Blairmore, officiating.

The Social Credit government is very liberal in its use of taxpayers' money, as evidenced by its latest order-in-council remitting the death duties of $2,746 due on the late Premier Aberhart's estate. When the proprietor of this newspaper was killed on military service, a government inspector turned up to value the plant to find what death duties should be assessed. No talk of remission was heard, nor was it expected. But the Social Crediters apparently are the privileged people. This remission of death duties without even consulting the legislature is a high-handed way of dealing with public funds.—Macled Gazette.

CARNIVAL A HUGE SUCCESS

Blairmore Elks' two-night carnival came to a successful conclusion at midnight Monday, and was pronounced by everyone as the biggest and most successful affair of its kind ever held in Blairmore.

Both nights saw the big arena packed with people from all over the district and all booths were very well patronized. The sale of major prizes went strong each night and much interest was manifested in the draws. Saturday night's prize, blanket and $25 in cash, went to Mrs. Gilderdale, of the campsite. Monday night's prize, Hudson Bay blanket and $122 cash, went to Isaac Daniel, also of Blairmore.

Those in charge of the various booths were sure had their hands full all through, and are to be commended upon the excellent manner in which their work was performed.

RATION SUPERINTENDENT PRAISES ALL VOLUNTEERS

"Volunteers handling distribution of Ration Book 3 have struck a high mark in efficiency," states C. G. McKee, regional superintendent of rationing, Wartime Prices and Trade Board. "After two days about 50 per cent of the new ration books were in the hands of the public. Local ration boards deserve the very highest praise for their splendid work in organizing distributing centres and enlisting volunteers to record new books and attend to the routine of distribution," he said.

George Ballantyne, well known old timer and business man of Beaver Mines, passed away rather suddenly at Waterton Lakes on Sunday at the ripe age of 72. He had been resident of Beaver Mines district for about forty years, and for many years as postmaster. Death came while he was enjoying a vacation at his lakeside cottage. He is survived by his wife and two daughters. The remains were laid to rest at Pincher Creek on Thursday afternoon.

We had a very interesting visit first thing in the week from Sheldon Buckles, Lethbridge branch manager of The Manufacturers Life Insurance Co. Sheldon is very well known to hockey boys throughout Southern Alberta, and while here called on a few of the old relatives. Another oldtimer in provincial hockey visited the Pass on Thursday in the person of Ab. Holt, of Lethbridge. Ab. and A. Mercier are in camp in The Gap, and report good luck at fishing. Ab. figures that some of the old-time hockey players, who are today between thirty and fifty years of age, should be able to successfully tour this province and the west to demonstrate just how hockey should be played and was played by them. Honestly, we believe that such a scheme, right after this war, would take well and be an eye opener to many youngsters who today figure they should be superb in hockey.

A proclamation issued by the Ottawa province Sunday next, September 5th, as a day of prayer and dedication. A similar proclamation set aside September 3rd as a day of prayer in the United Kingdom.

NOBLE McDONALD PASSES

Word has been received from Vancouver, of the passing of Mr. Noble McDonald, former mine superintendent with the West Canadian Collieries at Bellevue.

Mr. McDonald and his family left Bellevue for the coast but two months ago.

His brother Hector McDonald predeceased him at Coleman several years ago.

MAYBE NO CHRISTMAS TREES

William McKinstry, regional superintendent of National Selective Service, has announced orders indicating the once-flourishing British Columbia Christmas tree industry will be virtually eliminated by wartime restrictions. War permits for cutting trees will be refused, making it impossible for contractors to hire labor for this purpose.

CALL FOR WALKER EDUCATION HERE

Need of pedestrian education in Alberta has again been brought to the forefront by the report that there were 38 fatalities on the highways in the first seven months of this year, an increase of seven over the similar period of 1942.

In the great majority of cases, the victims were pedestrians. Some were bicycle and motorcycle riders.

Proper pedestrian education, such as has been advocated by the Alberta Motor Association, would serve to reduce this toll substantially, and it is something that should no longer be delayed by the provincial authorities.

Also, it is suggested that a survey of warning signs at dangerous curves would help improve the situation, with a sharp police check on dangerous or reckless driving on Alberta highways.

Despite the federal 40-mile-per-hour maximum speed law for highways, there are violators that deserve to be checked up, according to officials.

Dogs used as guides by blind Canadians are entitled to four meat coupons per week. They are inserted in the ration book of the dog-owner, but the additional sheets of coupons bear, in addition to the owner's name and serial number, the name and registered number of the dog.

Premier E. C. Manning, a student of the Bible, doubtless was studying Matthew 26:29 when he signed the order-in-council remitting the succession duties on the Aberhart estate amounting to $2,746. POINTED CRITICISM

Theodore Dreiser was talking about criticism.

"I like pointed criticism," he remarked, "criticism such as I heard in the lobby of a theatre the other night at the end of the play."

"The critic was an old gentleman. His criticism, which was for his wife's ears alone, consisted of these words: 'Well, you would come!'"

Tons Of Rubber Tires For Salvage

Two tons of rubber tires, worth their weight in wartime utility, this truck-load went as a gift from the Central District, Canadian Pacific Air Lines, Winnipeg, to the Patriotic Salvage Corps, August 10. The load is made up of Fairchild, Fokker, Super Fokker and WACO planes of the C.P.A., which have clocked all the mileage possible in the interests of safety and are now ready for still more definite war jobs. The gift was handed over to salvage headquarters by Dale S. Atkinson, supervisor of stores and equipment for the central district of C.P.A., Winnipeg, where his office was set up last January to serve C.P.A. Air Lines stores and equipment needs for all of Canada. Mr. Atkinson appears in the foreground.

Married Men

Statistics Show They Have The Best Chance Of Survival

The chances of survival are greater for the married than for the single, much more so among men than among women. Not only does marriage select the healthier lives, but it also creates more healthful environment. The marked advantage of married men over bachelors in respect to mortality persists throughout life, and is greatest at ages from 30 to 44 years, the period during which they are raising their families. At these ages the death rates among the married men are just about half those for the single. —Metropolitan Life Bulletin.

Just One Example

Editors Are Having Hard Time With Inexpensive Help

Editor & Publisher tells this story: Among the casualties on the home front in this war are the tempers of small town editors who find it necessary to draft high school boys to replace printers, some gone into the armed forces, others to better paying jobs.

One of these neophytes was setting ads in the office of Somerset (Pa.) American the other day. The copy called for "½ inch of white space all around." "What's white space?" the pseudo-printer asked the Plant Supt. Howard Brounger, who took the count. almost.

REG'LAR FELLERS—The Spelling Bee

Making A Speech

Pausing For Emphasis One Of The Elements For Effective Speaking

One of the characteristic elements of effective speaking is the use of the pause. There is nothing like a good stop. It implies the significance of what has just been said and induces curiosity for what is to follow. It permits a natural and welcome change of pitch. Young speakers are sometimes afraid that a pause will be mistaken for hesitation. Audiences instinctively know the difference, but a little clumsy or dubious hesitation is better than an unvarying, breathless hurry. "Take your time and keep your thought well ahead of your language," is sound advice. Silence is an important part of speech.—From "The Speaker's Notebook," by William G. Hoffman.

Welded ships weigh about 13 per cent less than riveted ships, because welded steel plates do not have to overlap.

Fewer Flashlights

Torch Batteries Are No Longer For Careless Use

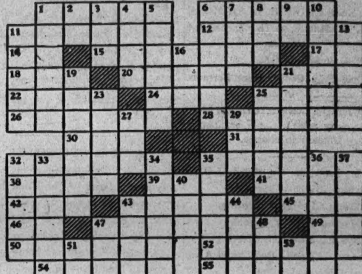

Because of the shortage of metal, fewer flashlight batteries can now be made in the Dominion. Flashlight batteries are doing important jobs overseas and here in Canada. Thousands of them are being used every night not only by the men in the armed forces, but by workers in industrial plants. Many of these workers need flashlights to perform their tasks in dark, cramped quarters where other light is not available.

Don't waste flashlight batteries by using the flashlight continuously. Snap it on only when it is needed, then snap it off just as quickly. Needless use of a flashlight wastes "juice" and shortens the life of batteries.

Keep flashlights well out of the way of the youngsters. They are fascinating play things but are also invaluable aids in emergency and should be kept in good working order.

BAKED CUP-OUSTARDS

2 eggs
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup Bee Hive Golden corn syrup
¼ cups hot milk
¼ teaspoon vanilla

Beat eggs (or 4 egg-yolks) slightly with the salt. Add corn syrup. Stir in hot milk and add vanilla. Strain into moistened custard cups and if desired, sprinkle with a little grated nutmeg. Set in a pan of hot water and bake in rather slow oven, 325 degrees F., about 35 minutes or until set so that a knife inserted in the centre comes out clean. Chill and if desired, unmoold for serving.

"BUT—WHO LOOKS
AFTER THE BOSS?"

In business organizations, big and small, across Canada today, the "swasted labor"—the people who are really overworked and underfed, are the bosses and their chief executives. Today, the average boss finds his work multiplied, his income cut to pieces, and the bright young men whom he counted on to make his old age comfortable, are in the armed services or special war jobs.

Older, tired, worried, he carries on, working harder than he ever did in his life before. And nobody gives him a break, not Labor, not the Public, and certainly not the Government.

"Big Business"—so we understand, is concerned about telling its story to the Public. It might well start with the bosses themselves.

Since the war began, the first and only thing in print that we have seen telling their side of the story is a little article in a recent issue of "Plant Administration." Every boss will enjoy it, but the people who should be reading the article are the labor agitators, organizers and radicals, who think that running a business these days is an easy job.

In this article, the writer, George N. Jones, says, for instance, "The worker is fed the best of food to speed production without loss; the care he is given is extra good, but—who looks after the boss?"

The truth is that the health of the "bosses" is a vital Canadian asset, which we cannot afford to ruin or have neglected.

Only the bosses themselves, and the people close to them, can see that they get decent meals, sufficient exercise and peace. But the rest of us can and should see that they get less criticism and a little praise.

"V"

IT'S AN IDEA

It seems that William T. Knight, of Lincoln, Neb., is so bored with talk about taxes that he has a solution for this vexatious problem: "Let the government take over all our wages or salary, then feed and clothe us and pay our rent and give us army pay of $12 a week for the duration. That would free about half the government employees for war work and cure a million headaches. Most workers never have as much as $12 a week left anyhow, after paying those above-mentioned bills."

"V"

THAT EDITORIAL "WE"

As a reminder of some war reporting via radio and newspaper, one of our readers submits the following:

A subscriber to a Pennsylvania weekly, being displeased with some remarks made by the editor, went in to whip him. How well he succeeded is given in the editor's own words:

"There was a blow, somebody fell. We got up. Turning upon our antagonist, we succeeded in winding his arms around our waist, and by a quick maneuver threw him on top of us, bringing our back at the same time in contact with the solid bed of the printing press. Then, inserting our noses between his teeth, and cleverly entangling his hands in our hair, we had him."

A WEEKLY EDITOR
LOOKS AT Ottawa

Written specially for the weekly newspapers of Canada

By Jim Greenblatt

It would make excess reading for me to enlarge at length on the things weekly readers have already heard, or read of President Roosevelt's visit to Ottawa. A few personal impressions might be more appropriate even at this date. After a close-up view during his address under the Peace Tower I am willing to "string along with Roosevelt" as I am with Churchill. He is the typical Happy Warrior; he simply radiates greatness, leadership, inspires confidence. You can see his face for hours afterwards. Here is a man in whom one feels one can trust one's destiny, that of our children.

You should have seen his face when making that statement about being "everlastingly angry" at those who think the Four Freedoms of the Atlantic Charter are unattainable. And his broad shoulders seemed to reach up into his tanned, healthy face and jutting jaw line when he said, "We are going to get rid of these outlaws this time!"

You felt ready to kick off the national sidewalk any selfish political individuals or interests when he declared the good old days were not that in every sense and he rather believed "we can achieve new and better days." After seeing him I believe the saying that men make history, not history makes men. The imprint of his visit to the capital will be profoundly embedded in the sands of things to come.

The great crowd on Parliament Hill was a sight to be remembered. The picture, the reaction was best summed up by that famous internationally known writer, Emil Ludwig, who was present. "What impressed me most was the gaiety without hysteria, the friendliness, the serenity and the hearty welcome without noise. The picture was like a folk festival—completely peaceful as if there could be no war in the world."

I thought it a fine gesture that at the luncheon at Government House invited to meet Mr. Roosevelt were Gordon Graydon, Opposition Leader in the House; Mr. J. Coldwell, CCF leader, and J. H. Blackmore, Social Credit leader, among others prominent in our political life.

Summer holidays are on the wane and 'twon't be long before 'Isidie's' aids, church associations, etc., get down to the serious business of organizing autumn and winter programmes. Is your organization represented on the women's regional advisory committee to the consumers branch of the wartime Prices and Trade Board? Farmers of Eastern Canada are again urged to buy oats from the west and take advantage of existing transportation facilities and the subsidy which is on for buying feed grains for storage. There may have been a little difficulty lately in getting western barley because offerings to date have not always been equal to the demand. What is desired is a continuous flow of feed grains to Eastern Canada. Talking of barley, the 1943 carry-over is an all time record, placed at 69,553,707 bushels, compared with 10,908,001 in 1942.

Amendments to the Unemployment Insurance Act

Notice to Interested Employers and Employees

AT ITS 1943 Session, the Parliament of Canada amended the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1940. The effect of these amendments is to require that additional workers be covered under unemployment insurance.

On and after September 1st, 1943, employers must make contributions in respect of the following employees:

★ (1) ALL PERSONS engaged in employment hitherto insurable, regardless of the amount of earnings, who may be paid on an hourly rate, on a daily rate, on a weekly rate, or a piece rate (including a mileage rate).

★ (2) ALL EMPLOYEES paid on a monthly or annual salary basis, whose salary, including any cost of living bonus which may be received, does not exceed $2,400 a year.

All employees, as above described, must pay their contributions as required by law.

The combined contribution for each employee earning $26 or more a week will be in Class 7—65c a week.

TV Employers: Obtain unemployment insurance books from the nearest local office of the Unemployment Insurance Commission as soon as possible, for employees above described who will become insurable on September 1st, 1943.

To Employees: It is in your interest to see that your employer makes contributions on your behalf from September 1st, 1943, if you become insurable through this Amendment.

WINTER COAL WILL BE SCARCE NEXT WINTER !!!

Prepare your home now for adequate warmth with smaller fuel consumption

TO SAVE COAL CHECK THESE POINTS

✓ HOW TO GET MORE HEAT

Pipes and furnaces must be clean, and grates in good order. If one or two rooms are hard to heat, you are wasting fuel. A minor adjustment can probably remedy this. Have a competent man check your heating system, and make necessary repairs. Insulate your furnace and pipes when necessary.

✓ HOW TO AVOID HEAT LOSSES

Storm windows and doors must fit snugly and be weatherstripped. Lack of storm windows can cause as much as 20% heat loss. Caulking should be done around windows, doors and in cracks in brick work (some hardware stores have caulking guns for rent). Broken glass should be replaced, and loose panes painted. Small expenditures on such work will save much fuel.

✓ HOW TO SAVE STILL MORE

You can save fuel and money by having your home properly insulated. It is a proven fact that in many homes lack of adequate insulation (including storm windows) results in unnecessary consumption of fuel—up to as much as 50%. Watch for later instructions on how to fire your furnace properly.

HAVE YOUR HOME INSPECTED FOR HEATING AND INSULATION DEFECTS

Get advice now! Skilled workmen and supplies are scarce. If you delay in getting your home ready for winter you may not be able to get the services you need.

REAL ESTATE—THE CEMETERY

Manufacturers interested in real estate may find some difficulty in locating any real estate agents as these splendid citizens are practically unknown in Calgary. But some real estate holdings may be obtained out on the Macleod trail a short distance from the city. Many of the best customers of the brewery have made their homes there already, and may be said to be firmly rooted in the soil. There are no complaints from them, and no tenant once taking up his abode there has ever been known to leave. No difficulty will be experienced in locating old friends as the name of the tenant in almost all instances is carried on a neat stone, accompanied by some facts and more action when space permits. EFFECTIVE SEPTEMBER 2nd PRESERVES and SWEET SPREADS ARE RATIONED BY COUPON

The products affected include: Jams, Jellies, Marmalades, Extracted Honey, Comb Honey in Squares, Honey Butter, Maple Syrup, Maple Butter, Maple Sugar, Molasses, Corn Syrup, Cane Syrup, or any blended Table Syrup, Apple Butter or Canned Fruit.

On and after Thursday, September 2nd, 1943, it is unlawful for a consumer to purchase any of the above-listed products, except on the surrender of a valid ration coupon.

Coupons "D" in Ration Book 3 are to be used for this purpose. Coupon "D-1" becomes good September 2nd. Starting September 16th, two coupons become good every four weeks.

These products are being rationed so that there will be an equal sharing of the available supplies. Persons who do not use the coupons for these products may use them to acquire more sugar in addition to their regular sugar ration and canning sugar allowance.

ONE "D" COUPON IS GOOD FOR Not More Than

Jams, Jellies, Marmalades, Extracted Honey, Apple Butter, Maple Butter or Honey Butter	6 FLUID OZS.
or
Maple Sugar or Comb Honey (in Squares)	1/2 LB. NET
or
Molasses or Maple Syrup	10 FLUID OZS.
or
Corn Syrup, Cane Syrup, or any blended Table Syrup	12 FLUID OZS.
or
Canned Fruit	10 FLUID OZS.
or
Sugar	1/2 LB. NET

When purchasing goods in containers, it will not always be possible for the consumer to get the exact coupon value.

EXAMPLE: If you are buying jam in containers—

One "D" Coupon is good for one 4, 5 or 6 oz. container or two 3 oz. containers.

Two "D" Coupons are good for one 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 or 12 oz. container, or two 5 oz. or two 6 oz. containers, or three 4 oz. containers.

or any combination adding up to not more than the total value of the coupons permitted.

SUPPLIERS—Separate instructions which are similar to the regulations of applying on sugar rationing are available from any branch of the Ration Administration, for quota users, industrial users and suppliers.

Extension of Compulsory Employment Transfers.

To Employers and Employees:

THE 6th Compulsory Employment Transfer Order, issued under authority of National Selective Service Civilian Regulations, requires compliance not later than September 8th, 1943. After that date no employer may continue to employ any man covered by this Order, unless under special permit.

The first five Compulsory Transfer Orders listed occupations, and required compliance by all male employees in those occupations if (a) in an age and marital class designated under the Military Call-up, or if (b) 16, 17 or 18 years of age. The Sixth Order repeats all occupations given in the five earlier Orders, and requires all other men from 16 to 40 years of age (both ages inclusive) to become available for transfer to higher priority jobs, by registering at the nearest Employment and Selective Service Office.

Details of the Sixth Order were advertised in daily newspapers at the end of August. Copies of the Order may be secured from any Employment and Selective Service Office.

If in doubt as to the coverage of this Order, or the procedure under it, ask your nearest Employment and Selective Service Office.

All men, married or single, employed in designated occupations, aged 16 to 40, are now covered by the Orders. To avoid penalties, those who have not yet registered must do so by September 8th, 1943.

The United Nations

THE PHRASE "THE UNITED NATIONS" is now a commonplace one, yet perhaps few who use it realize its full significance. Less than two years ago it had its beginning in a band of nations held together by their belief in the cause of freedom. Since that time the bonds between these countries have tightened, and their pledges have been translated into action which is spelling the doom of the Axis nations. Thirty-two sovereign states now make up the United Nations, and their combined resources have been built into the powerful war machine which is moving to destroy the aggressor nations in all parts of the world. Geography has made it difficult for all the thirty-two nations to maintain close contact, but groups have been formed among neighboring countries, and the whole has been co-ordinated through Great Britain, which serves as a link between the Old World and the New.

All Resources Are Combined

The English speaking peoples have formed one group, in which Britain, the Dominions and the United States have combined their economic resources and their fighting strength. Five boards administer the economic affairs of this group, and the combined boards confer with representatives of Russia, China and the other United Nations. The Lease-Lend principle, originated in the United States, has become the basis of co-operation between the United Nations. Great Britain's reciprocal aid to the United States now equals that given by the United States to Britain, and Russia has benefitted greatly under this plan. Geographical difficulties have so far prevented China from receiving greater quantities of supplies in this way, but when these difficulties are removed, powerful assistance will be given to that gallant member of the United Nations.

Striking Force Now Very Great

Additional groups in the United Nations include the Pacific War Council, which sits in London and Washington. Great Britain, the United States, Australia, New Zealand, India, China and the Netherlands are represented on this council, which although not an executive body, makes the wishes of the governments concerned known to the chiefs of staff and the central committees of the United Nations. The countries of the Americas have joined in a Pan-American Union, and since 1941 Canada and the United States have been combining their entire resources for war production and defense. In London, for the past three years the representatives of the governments of the occupied countries have been co-ordinating their efforts with those of the other groups of the United Nations to bring about the defeat of the common enemy. A year ago, a treaty between the United Kingdom and the Soviet Union brought about a fuller degree of co-operation and understanding both in the prosecution of the present war, and for the organization of security and economic prosperity in Europe after the war. The results of the combined efforts of all these nations is now apparent in a powerful fighting force which can with confidence take the offensive on all the war fronts.

The Modern Farm In Canada

According to the 1941-census, the percentage of farm homes in each province having electricity, radio, telephone, and automobile, is as follows:

	Electric Lighting	Auto-mobility	Radio	Telephone
Prince Edward Island	26.2	39.2	53	27.1
Nova Scotia	26.2	29.6	58.7	25.8
New Brunswick	18.6	27.3	48.6	18
Quebec	22.6	16.4	36.4	15.8
Ontario	37.3	69.6	66.3	50.8
Manitoba	7.3	48.6	66.8	24.1
Saskatchewan	1.8	45	71.5	32.2
Alberta	5.5	46.7	72.9	38.1
British Columbia	36	35.4	69.3	19.2

Italian Prisoners Of War Make Fun Of Mussolini's Army

The Leeds Yorkshire Post reports that a visitor who recently went to a West Yorkshire farm was struck by the high spirits during the dinner-time break of a small group of Italian prisoners serving as laborers. They seemed to be having a joke at the expense of Mussolini. Two of the prisoners came smartly to attention. "Mussolini's army!" laughed one of the Italians, pointing to the rigid pair. "March!" he shouted, amid much merriment.

Briskly, they both marched several paces—backwards.

Remember China

Help That We Can Offer Is Sorely Needed By A Stricken Nation

Bombs cannot conquer the Chinese. Time has proved that—the last six years of Japan's cruel war on them. Out of the ruins and rubble of destruction, the life of a new and better China is being born. But the birth is slow and painful, and China's vitality, splendid though it is, needs stimulation and support from the Western world.

In Canada, the Chinese War Relief Fund is organized from Coast to Coast to transmit aid to China. This month it is asking the Canadian public for $1,000,000 to be used for a vital program of Chinese relief and rebuilding. If Canada's sympathy and admiration for a wonderful fight are transmitted into dollars, the objective will be reached and passed with ease.

Canadians may argue about this and that, and different sections may have different ideas on many subjects, but Canadians are of one mind and heart in tribute to the unbounded courage and sheer physical doggedness of the Chinese people. The very name of China is synonymous with gallantry.

LOST THE PLANS

City Councilman Harold Harby of Los Angeles, drew plans for a device to silence crowing roosters. The instrument kept the rooster from stretching his neck. No stretch, no crow. But the plans have been lost or stolen. Perhaps it's just as well. The inventor admitted that the gadget, if improperly applied, makes a rooster give a life of alien scream.

Japanese Brutality

Terrible Stories From Concentration Camps In Hong Kong
A remarkable and terrible story reaches me from Miss Elsie Fairfax-Cholmeley, who escaped from a Japanese concentration camp in Hong Kong in March, 1942.

She now writes from Kellin in Free China. She says that since the Japanese captured Hong Kong 18 months ago, over one million unemployed and unskilled Chinese workers have been driven from the former British colony. The majority have been forcibly deported, the rest driven to leave through denial of food ration cards.

Without any resources whatever, thousands of these refugees have been thrust to death in the barren islands and coastal regions where they have been taken. The bodies of hundreds of Hong Kong richmen, lawyers, businessmen and others lie by the roadsides in Kwangtung province (where famine conditions obtain even for the local population), some close to the sea, others farther inland—as far as they could drag themselves.

Yet these deportees are more fortunate than thousands of women, children and unemployed who have been simply herded on to junks and barges, towed out beyond the entrance to Hong Kong harbor and dumped overboard. Many skilled workers, who refused to work for the Japanese and were unable to escape, have also died in this manner.

Fifteen thousand Chinese are still forced to work in the Hong Kong shipyards. The Japanese pay a Chinese worker just enough to keep him alive, so that he can never save enough to travel to the nearest free town in the interior, even if he gets away. Escape often means starvation. Yet thousands of skilled workers have escaped from Hong Kong and many have reached Free China—London New Statesman.

Always Looks Calm

Churchill Feels Deeply But Never Shows His Emotions

The secret of Churchill is to be found, we believe, in his calm, unemotional approach to the great questions before the United Nations and before his country. It is revealed in the determined way in which he carries on under all circumstances. This is not to say that Churchill is not a man of deep feeling. He is. But he does not expose his feeling to public gaze. He dresses his emotions in one of the finest vocabularies used by any public figure. Thereby he inspires and encourages those it is his task to lead through the greatest crisis in world history. — Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Sir Archibald Wavell Is Fluent In Language Of Soviet

In view of the part which Russia will play in world affairs in the future, it is perhaps not unimportant to refer to an incident that took place in Moscow recently when Sir Archibald Wavell was one of the guests at an official banquet, states the London Evening Standard. Called upon at the last moment to speak, Sir Archibald proposed the health of Stalin in fluent and flowing Russian. Stalin, apparently unaware that the then C-in-C. India knew the Russian language, showed his pleasure in no uncertain fashion; afterwards he was seen in deep and intimate conversation (in Russian) with the new Viceroy.

CANADA'S NEW TIRE REGULATIONS ADD MANY NEW CLASSES OF ELIGIBLE TIRE BUYERS - - -

Note: The following table of eligible tire buyers is of necessity greatly abbreviated. Many of the classifications are subject to qualifications and the list is not complete. The Firestone Dealer will gladly allow you to consult the Rubber Controller's Order No. 4 of June 30, 1942, which defines exactly who are eligible buyers:

- CLASS A
Eligible for new, retreaded or used tires and retreading service; also for new or used tubes:
Doctors
Public Passenger Vehicles
Industrial and Farm Machinery
Ministers, Priests, Robbers (serving or more parishes 3 or more miles apart)
Ambulance Drivers
Fire Fighters
Police Service
Garbage Collectors
Express & Mail Service
Delivery of newspapers
Prospectors
Public utilities

- CLASS B
Eligible for used or retreaded tires and retreading service; also for used tubes:
War workers
Vehicles registered under War-time Industries Control Plan
Vehicles used to carry mail
Domestic and Provincial Govt. officials
Judges, magistrates, crown attorneys, sheriffs, etc.
Railway employees
Construction superintendents
Inspectors for fire, accident, grain elevators or boilers
Employees of the Crown
Wellington Workers
Employees of Dom. or Prov. Dept. Agriculture or Forest Service
Employees of Municipalities or of Federal Households
Employees of educational and preservation of essential business and stock exchanges

- CLASS C
Eligible for used tires and tubes and retreading service:
Commercial transporters by motor vehicle
Ministers, Priests, Robbers (serving or more parishes 3 or more miles apart)
Rural undertakers
Farm implement dealers
Home-driven vehicles
Passenger cars owned by a farmer who also has a truck
Rural accidentees

CANADA'S rubber crisis is still with us. But because of careful conservation and controls there are tires for those cars, trucks, and farm equipment essential to the war effort.

If you fall in this category (the chart at the left will guide you) and your tires cannot be repaired or retreaded, you are considered eligible to buy tires.

Your first move then is to go to your nearest Firestone Dealer. He has the definite official information and necessary forms. He will furnish the required Inspection Report and do everything possible to help you obtain a Tire Ration Permit necessary to obtain new or used tires or tubes and retreading service.

Multiple Raids On Nazi Targets Coming Soon

LONDON. — Observers here see the day coming, and in the not too distant future, when bomber command may carry out anything up to three or four raids in a single day, on a single city in a single night on a large scale, rather than on succeeding nights as was the case with Hamburg.

Sanford Locker, air correspondent of the Sunday Graphic, is suggesting multiple, single-night attacks on single target towns, said. "Given the necessary machines and air crews and both will be forthcoming. It can only be a matter of time, before such raids take place."

Each night, as winter draws near, lengthens the period of darkness which, in addition to availability of aircraft, is important to multiple raids.

An R.A.F. commentator disclosed some 800 aircraft took part in the repeat raids on Hamburg each night, leaving Britain from some 40 airfields. But the same number of airfields could accommodate 800 more aircraft given another hour and a half of darkness, because it takes about half an hour to clear an airfield of 20 planes and an hour to bring them down of their return.

Locker foresees the night of the 2,000-bomber raid when 6,000 tons of high explosive and incendiaries will be dropped on a single city in a single night by clearing British bomber bases of one wave of planes and following it up with one or more waves once the R.A.F. has advantage of extra darkness.

And, as the nights lengthen, the bombers will be reaching out for new targets in southern and eastern Germany.

Aggression And Lawlessness Is To Be Punished

WINNIPEG. — Right Hon. Lord Wright, of Britain, told the Canadian Bar Association's annual meeting that when the war emergency ends a return should be made to the normal common law methods of legislation and adjudication.

Lord Wright, one of the seven lords of appeal in ordinary, the supreme judicial authority for Great Britain and Northern Ireland, said the fundamental rights of a free Christian people have been enumerated by the Atlantic Charter. These are the four freedoms he said, adding there also is a fifth freedom, the freedom of access to the courts.

He told the assembly that "we have got to demonstrate to all the world that lawless aggression and violence is a crime which must and will be punished."

"It will be a bad day for the future of humanity if we do not establish this law and show once and for all to the Germans, including Hitler, Goebbels, the great German general staff, Goering and the like, that war does not pay."

Earlier, G. H. Atkins, K.C., of Winnipeg, said in his presidential address that regimentation, necessary to a democratic nation in wartime, must in peace yield place to normal institutions.

Lord Wright praised Canada's war effort, saying it was "outstanding and amazing." Canada, he said, is the fourth largest producer among the United Nations and her supplies are being used on every battle front, he said.

Lord Wright told delegates there, as lawyers are fighting for the common law—justice and liberty for the individual. He warned that Hitler's ambition was to rivet on mankind the brutal Nazi domination for 1,000 years.

So far, Lord Wright said, the Nazis had created a fortress of Europe, and within the fortress the people were held in absolute slavery. "No one can call his soul his own. . . . People are slaughtered daily in crowds, men, women and girls are deported into Germany and held in forced labor or worse."

"But the peoples' spirit is unbroken, and underground the people plot and work as far as they can, though death, accompanied by tortures more cruel and ingenious than any in the confines of the red Indians used to employ, stares them in the face."

Lord Louis Will Head Forces In Southeast Asia

LONDON. — The appointment of Lord Louis Mountbatten, leader of the famed Commandos, as commander-in-chief of Allied forces in southeast Asia was hailed as the initial step for crushing blows at Japan along the lengthy southeast Japanese hold from Rangoon to Singapore.

Any invasion attempt is expected to be delayed until the end of the monsoon season late next month or early in October.

"Now that they have put Monty in there," was typical British comment, "it shows that they really mean business with Japan."

All classes in Britain have followed with rapid interest the daring, almost fictional feats of Lord Louis, a second cousin to the king.

Forty-three, he is the youngest of the three Allied supreme commanders named since the United States entered this war. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Allied commander of the Mediterranean theatre, is 53, and Gen. Douglas MacArthur, head of the Allied forces in the southwest Pacific, is 63.

Lord Louis, who is the first Briton elevated to a supreme command, rose from commander of a destroyer flotilla to chief of the combined operations post he is relinquishing to take charge in southeast Asia.

Because tough "Monty" is the type who likes to take a pistol in his hand and lead his forces when the going is rough, it is expected here that the autumn stab at the Japs as cooked up in Quebec will be a vast sea-borne invasion of Malaya, Burma and the Netherlands East Indies timed for the end of the monsoon season.

London newspapers announced the appointment of Lord Louis with big headlines: "Big job for Lord Louis," "Lord Louis will lead offensive on Japs," "Lord Louis will direct war from India," "Eisenhower of east will lead attack on Japan."

The operational duties of the Allied commanders now on duty in southeast Asia in relation to Lord Louis' appointment were not yet defined and officials here declined to comment.

SWISS REPORT

Says Italians Have Not Sent British Prisoners To Germany

LONDON.—The Swiss government has reported to the British government that an investigation had failed to reveal that any British prisoners of war in Italian hands had been transferred to Germany.

The British government had asked neutral Switzerland to check reports reaching here that the Italians were transferring British war prisoners to Germany after the fall of the Mussolini regime in Italy.

A SOLVENT PARTNER

Canada Has Not Found It Necessary To Accept Lend-Lease Assistance

CHICAGO.—Canada is the only one of the United Nations that has not found it necessary to accept lend-lease assistance from the United States, C. C. McLaughlin, supreme court justice of Alberta, said in a speech at a meeting of the American Bar Association.

"Canada is now the only debtor nation that has maintained payment of World War 1 debts without interruption," he said. "It is gratifying to assure you that you have a solvent partner."

"Last year Canada made an outright gift of $1,000,000,000 in war supplies to Great Britain, and this year another $1,000,000,000 has been allocated for assistance to United Nations who cannot pay."

Justice McLaughlin said the current annual Canadian budget of $10,000,000,000, although Canada has only 11,500,000 inhabitants. He said that heavy taxation and direct borrowing from the public have been the Canadian means of combating inflation.

McLaughlin said Canada is eager to join in the ultimate direct assault on Japan itself.

"It is hardly necessary for me to assure you that Canadians stand prepared to persevere with you. . . in preparations, whatever the cost, that will inevitably bring about the utter collapse of the unspeakable Japanese regime."

BOMBS HIT TUNNEL

Many Thousands Drowned In Hamburg Air Raid Shelter

LONDON.—Reuters news agency said in a despatch from Zurich that 18,000 persons drowned when the Elbe tunnel hit during one of the recent Allied heavy raids on Hamburg.

The tunnel beneath the sands of the Elbe river presumably was being used as an air raid shelter.

Similar to the highway tunnel at Glasgow, the Elbe tubes were started in 1907 and finished in 1911. Access to the tunnel was by elevators of 75-foot lift in shafts, each having four elevators for vehicles and two for pedestrians. Each cast iron tube under the river provided a single roadway six feet wide, and two footwalks four feet wide.

AFTER THE WAR

Britain Will Back Migration Of Her Soldiers To Dominions

LONDON.—The British government is going to adopt a policy of encouraging migration to the dominions after the war, especially of soldiers looking for new openings, the general council of the Trades Union Congress said.

Without giving details, the T.U.C. in its 75th report prepared for submission to the organization's annual convention, said that it had learned "facilities will be given to demobilized soldiers who may wish to try new openings in countries of the commonwealth."

EMPEROR WORRIED

Japanese People Urged To Increase Output Of War Materials

NEW YORK. — The Tokyo radio, declaring that Emperor Hirohito is deeply concerned over Japanese war production, appealed to the Japanese people to "set the mind of the emperor at ease" by exerting new efforts to boost production, the United States office of war information reported.

The appeals, the O.W.I. said, were made in broadcasts describing a series of audiences to which the emperor summoned leaders of various industries to discuss "increased production for the elevation of fighting strength."

The O.W.I. said the Tokyo radio denied Chinese reports that Admiral Mitsuichi Koga, who succeeded the late Admiral Isoroku Yamamoto as commander of the combined Japanese fleet, has been killed in action.

WAR PLANTS

Will Be Main Problem Facing Canada After The War

WINNIPEG. — Demobilization of war plants after the war will be one of the main problems facing Canada, John Diefenbaker, K.C., member of parliament for Lake Centre, Sask., said here while addressing a luncheon meeting.

The war plants of the Dominion represent an investment of $890,000,000, Mr. Diefenbaker said, and the only plant so far with a post-war plan was the synthetic rubber concern at Sarnia, Ont.

He said the United States has decided that aluminum, aircraft and shipbuilding will continue to be operated with government assistance since they are necessary to the welfare of mankind as much in peace time as in war.

NAZIS TEST GAS

LONDON. — The Belgian news agency said that German troops tested a new kind of gas on the slopes outside fortifications near Liege in Belgium. The gas was burned off and the area closed to the public, the agency said.

Canadian Army To Be Used As Needs Dictate

WITH THE CANADIANS IN SICILY.—Lt. Gen. A. G. McNaughton said in an interview on the course of his tour of Sicily that the participation of Canadian formations in the Sicilian campaign proved that "the Canadian army can be used in whole or in part as the needs and prosecution of the war dictate."

"We have to be prepared to operate in whole or in part," he said. "This has to be the objective—above the aspirations or desires of any individual or group. . . . The effective prosecution of the war must be the only criterion in these decisions."

He said the campaign showed it was "entirely possible" for one or more Canadian formations to be associated with British or American forces.

The Canadian troops were withdrawn from the later stages of the Sicilian fighting to give them a rest and to prepare for future operations, it was disclosed.

"The Canadians who fought as—and still are—part of the British 8th Army, moved so fast in Sicily that they outstripped their transport and pushed on for several days without food."

They were tired and worn, and, because fresh British troops were available, the Canadians were withdrawn from the fighting.

The Canadian commander, commenting on the general war situation, said, "I think there is a gleam of light ahead—yet something more than a gleam. We have had a long walk in the valley of the shadow."

Gen. McNaughton praised the mighty effort of the Russians and declared a sense of inevitable defeat must be coming over the German high command as Berlin saw its allies dropping off and as the Germans faced a lack of strategic reserves.

On the other hand the Allies' war industries were hitting their stride. Now there was "an abundance of supplies and we have the ability to transport them to our war theatres."

"We can feel we will get the goods now," he added, mentioning the easing of the U-boat menace on convoy routes.

ALASKA HIGHWAY

Bridge Over Laird River To Be Finished This Fall

EDMONTON. — Brig.-Gen. J. A. O'Connor, officer commanding the United States northwest service command, said that construction of the 1,000-foot steel suspension bridge over the Laird river on the Alaska highway route, will be finished this fall.

Gen. O'Connor said "The Alaska highway looks good." Graveling operations are going ahead and there will be enough gravel on the highway this year to put it in good shape, he added.

TO KEEP THE PEACE

LONDON. — Herbert E. Morrison, home secretary, predicted in an Isle of Man speech that Britain's post-victory job would be "to sit on the head of any German government for five, 10, 20, 50, or even 100 years to make sure there will be no war." He advocated an international armed force to police the world under control of a new League of Nations.

BRITAIN'S MANPOWER

LONDON.—Britain's civilian manpower is the most highly mobilized in the world, with two out of every three men and women between the ages of 14 and 64 working full time for the war effort, it was revealed. The statistics were released by Malcolm Stewart McCordquale, parliamentary secretary to the Labor ministry.

SPECIAL DAY

LONDON.—The King has proclaimed Sunday, Sept. 26, as "Battle of Britain Sunday" to commemorate the deeds of R.A.F. and civil defence workers during the German air blitz on London three years ago. The Battle of Britain was at its heaviest through September 1940, with both daylight and night attacks.

GIFTS FROM NATIVES

CAIRO.—Since June, 1940, the Masai people of Kenya have supplied 53,720 head of cattle and more than 8,000 sheep to the colony's livestock controller as gifts to the war effort. The Masai are a nomadic people numbering about 40,000.
